

EXECUTIVE BIOGRAPHY

Scott Becker
Senior Vice President, Finance, QES
Senior Vice President & General Manager, QWS
Qualcomm Incorporated

Scott Becker is senior vice president of finance for Qualcomm Enterprise Services (QES). Becker serves an additional role as senior vice president and general manager for Qualcomm Wireless Systems (QWS). In November 2006, QES and QWS merged to take advantage of synergies offered by both divisions.

During his 14 years at Qualcomm, he has served in multiple management and operational roles. Becker has been responsible for all aspects of QWS satellite communications technology. Under his effective leadership, QWS experienced continued growth and produced quality products, applications and services to be used over the Globalstar satellite network. Prior to this role, Scott was vice president of finance for both QWS and the Qualcomm Infrastructure division.

Prior to joining Qualcomm, Becker supported Qualcomm as outside tax counsel with Price Waterhouse.
