

Compliance Questionnaire
(to be completed by University or Research Institute*)

Qualcomm is committed to the highest standards of ethical conduct and abides by all applicable anti-corruption laws in countries where we conduct business. As part of our continual commitment to comply with global anti-bribery laws, we are collecting the following information to ensure we meet those requirements globally. Please be assured that the information is for internal use only. Once the requested information is received, we can complete the compliance review and move forward with next steps.

- Full Name of the University or Research Institute (provide full and complete name):

- To the best of your knowledge, is any officer, director, senior executive, board member or employee whose work is directly related to this grant (or an immediate family member of any officer, director, senior executive, board member or employee whose work is directly related to this grant) of your organization employed by a governmental agency, state-owned enterprise or Public International Organization (e.g., government policy boards, certain standards bodies, etc.)? If yes, please identify the nature of the relationship and the role (including name of organization, title, brief description of the role, and let us know if this is a decision-making or having the ability to influence a decision role).

- Are you aware of any past, present or future business or other benefit to Qualcomm that is conditioned on or is otherwise a reward for this grant?

- Specific to the professors/individuals whose research program will benefit from this grant, do they hold any paid or unpaid non-U.S. government or government-affiliated positions (jobs, advisory boards or committees, policy boards or committees, certain standards bodies, military, etc.) other than their position at the university? If yes, please list all.
